Professional experience

Marc Engler is a certified specialist SBA criminal law and leader of the criminal law and white collar crime team together with Thomas Sprenger. He advises clients on matters of general criminal law, white collar crime and international mutual legal assistance in criminal matters. Marc Engler has broad experience in complex and extensive commercial criminal proceedings, including proceedings against corporations as well as in money laundering and corruption cases. He advises and represents private and corporate clients in national and international proceedings.

Marc Engler has acted as defence lawyer in various well-known criminal cases. As experienced litigator he has detailed and thorough knowledge and expertise of criminal procedural law and criminal procedures. He knows how to deal with media professionals and supports private and corporate clients on issues associated with media coverage in connection with criminal proceedings.

Marc Engler is a member of the bar examination commission of the Canton of Zurich. In this role he examines candidates for the Zurich bar on criminal law and criminal procedural law. He does also regularly publish professional articles, lecture in his area of expertise and organizes professional training seminars. Furthermore, he authored for the Basel Commentaries on criminal law, criminal procedural law and international criminal law.
